Snapshot of Academics

What will you be, academically, after the 2015 Spring Semester/Quarter ends? A "G1" means "first year graduate student," even if you haven't started yet. "G2" means second-year graduate student, i.e., you finished your first year. Select one:

Other (less senior): Senior G1 G2 G3 G4 Other (more senior):

Below, list the most recent first, and feel free to write "n/a" under the degree box if appropriate. Note that this is just a snapshot. Please feel free to discuss subtleties, including additional schools, in your cover letter/resume. Please convert your GPA to a 4.0 scale.

Point us in the right direction

What are the three most important things about yourself relative to your application? We expect that you will address those things in your cover letter and resume. But, here, this is an opportunity to make sure they stand out to us.

Help us form Teams

List, in order of preference, which topics in the bulleted list on our website you are most interested in. Use the short titles in parentheses.

(1) (2) (3)

List programming languages you know and your skill level. Example: C++/Strong Python/Beginner. It's okay if you know only one, or none. Don't let the fact that there are three boxes bother you. Note that we also welcome theoreticians and experimentalists who work best when teamed with a strong programmer.
